I only have two points:

1. Father Leo English, a Redemptorist priest, friend and mentor of mine said in a sermon one day, “When all is said and done, there is usually more said than done.” I took this to heart and have used it as a base from which to grow from. I believe that there is a lot of talk out there but it doesn’t always translate into action. My goal as a trustee will be to ensure that actions speak louder than words.
2. I believe strongly that our province, city and especially our school division needs more Prayer of St. Francis and less fear, intimidation and disinformation. Our kids deserve it!
